- All exhibits MUST be identified with a small removable sticky label showing your unique identifier as listed on your entry form overleaf (e.g. the first four letters of your surname, or your surname if it's short) and an item number. Items for sale should also have their price written on the label. Your price should include the 30% commission that the Society will retain if an item is sold.
- Items sold whilst on exhibition will be paid for in a single payment (less commission) as soon as practicable after the close of the exhibition, with the exception of sold items, orders or commissions for which only a deposit has been paid at this time – payment will not be made for these until full payment has been received from the customer.
- Exhibitors license Canberra Potters to photograph and film exhibits and use information supplied on the entry form for use in publicity material about the exhibition, future exhibitions, classes, Canberra Potters and Watson Arts Centre.
- Whilst every possible care will be taken with entries, no liability will be accepted by Canberra Potters for loss or damage to entries. Participants who wish to insure their work should make their own arrangements.
- Canberra Potters reserves the right to exclude work from the exhibition if the work is deemed unsuitable or for gallery display space constraints.

All exhibits MUST be identified with a small removable sticky label showing your unique identifier as listed on your entry form (e.g. the first four letters of your surname, or your surname if it's short) and an item number. Items for sale should also have their price written on the label. Your price should include the 30% commission that the Society will retain if an item is sold.

If submitting more than one entry, please prioritise with 1 as your highest priority, and 2 as the lowest. This will assist us if exhibits need to be excluded due to space and/or display considerations. Lower priority exhibits will generally be excluded first although consideration will also be given to the size/nature of the piece and the overall display look and space. All entries, whatever their priority, will be presented to the judge for consideration. Groupings or sets of items can be submitted as a single entry but must be labelled and priced as a group.

A maximum of two entries may be submitted.
