Raku Critters

- Artists will be paid a flat rate of $10 per approved piece.
- Each piece must be stamped with the Canberra Potters logo stamp (available to borrow on site only), the artists initials or identifying mark stamped or scratched in, and a unique number, also stamped or scratched in. E.g., if you make 3 wombats and 2 banksia pods, they should be numbered 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. This helps our Raku Firers track participant’s pieces through the firing process.
- Please note, raku fired objects are NOT food safe, so items that could potentially hold food or drink will be rejected.

Initials or drawing of identifying mark inscribed on each Raku Critter
